

I've gotten to watch & experience Clint's pastoral care for my Father as he was in a nursing home dying. It was inspiring. But what really caught my attention was how Clint ministered to other people in the nursing home that he didn't know. People who just addressed him in the halls as he was walking in and out. He is very gifted in pastoral care.

John Stevens